Bombay, the 5th August 1972

In pursuance of Rule 18 of the Rules made by the Government of India under Section 28 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 and published in the Gazette of India of the 20th April 1946 [as amended under Notification No. F.(8)(70)-B/52 dated the 29th April 1954] the following list (for the quarter ended 31st December 1971) is hereby advertised of securities lost etc. in respect of which prima facie grounds exist for believing that the securities have been lost and that the claim of applicants is just. All persons other than the respective claimants named below who have any claim upon these securities should communicate immediately with the Chief Accountant, Reserve Bank of India, Central Office, Department of Accounts and Expenditure, Central Debt Section, Bombay.

The list has been divided into two parts—Part 'A' being securities now advertised for the first time and Part 'B' the list of securities previously advertised.

UNIT TRUST OF INDIABombay, the 19th July 1972*

No. UT521/NP.9-72.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 21 of the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963, the Board of Trustees of the Unit Trust of India, at its meeting held on June 9, 1972 has amended the Unit Scheme, 1964, as follows.

The second proviso to sub-clause (1) of clause 8 shall be substituted by the following :

"Provided further that the Trust may, after determining the price at which units may be sold in terms of the preceding proviso, offer to sell, during the period determined in terms of the said proviso, units to the existing unit holders at a fixed price which may be so much less than the price determined in terms of the said proviso, as the Trust may deem fit.

Explanation :

"Existing unit holder" shall mean a person who was registered as a unit holder as on the date of closure of the registered of unitholders for the year preceding the offer and continued to be a registered holder of units as on the date of his availing of the offer made in terms of this proviso."

No. UT522/N.P.42-72.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 21 of the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963, the Board of Trustees of the Unit Trust of India, at its meeting held on June 9, 1972 has amended the Unit Scheme, 1971, as follows.

I. After clause 9, a new clause 9A shall be inserted, namely :

9A. Restrictions on investments in shares etc. of companies :

(1) Investments by the Trust from the funds of this Scheme in securities of any one company shall not exceed ten per cent of the securities issued and outstanding of such company.

Provided that the aggregate of investments in the capital initially issued by new industrial undertakings shall not at any time exceed five per cent of the total amount of the said funds.

(2) The limits prescribed under sub-clause (1) shall not apply to investments in the following securities and for the purpose of that sub-clause, such investments shall not be taken into account :

(i) debentures issued by any company and secured by a first charge on any immovable property, plant or equipment or secured by a floating charge on the assets of the company, where the book value of such property, plant or equipment, or, as the case may be, of such assets as shown in the last audited balance sheet or, where such balance sheet is not available, as certified by the company, is more than twice the face value of such debentures, provided the company has declared, for the company's financial year immediately preceding the financial year in which the investment in such debentures is or was made by the Trust, dividend on its equity shares at not less than six per cent of the company's paid-up capital.

Explanation :

"Book value" means in cases where no adjustment for depreciation has been made, the value as shown in the books less the amount of full depreciation calculated in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 205 of the Companies Act, 1956.

(ii) debentures secured by a first charge on any immovable property, plant or equipment of a company which has declared dividend on its equity shares, for the five years immediately preceding the year in which the investment in such debentures is or was made by the Trust, or for at least five out of six or seven years immediately preceding such year.

(3) The limit prescribed in sub-clause (1) shall be applied with reference to circumstances at the time the investments are made, and shall not be deemed to have been exceeded, notwithstanding that, by reason of fluctuations in the market prices of the investments, or by reason of issue of bonus shares or right shares by the company in whose securities investments have been made, the limit is in fact exceeded.

Explanation :

In this clause the term "company" shall have the same meaning as is assigned to it in the companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)"

II. The following proviso shall be added to clause 26 :

"Provided that clause 9A may be amended by the Board only with the approval of the Reserve Bank in terms of Regulation 36A of the Unit Trust of India General Regulations, 1964."

PUNJAB WAKF BOARD AMBALA CANTT.Ambala Cantt., the 31st March 1972No. 37 (Mutwallis)*PROPOSAL ABOUT APPOINTMENT OF MUTWALLI*Resolution No. 8.

Special Provisions

6. Where in the case of a subject prescribed for the Pre-University or B.A. examination, and in the case of additional optional subject for the Pre-Medical or Pre-Engineering examination, no arrangement for instruction exists either in any affiliated college or in the University, the Syndicate may permit a candidate to appear in that subject in the examination as a private candidate.

A student of an Evening College may be permitted to appear in an additional optional subject privately, if arrangements for that subject do not exist in the Evening College concerned even though they may available in a Day College.

7. A member of the Regular Armed Forces who has qualified in one part of an examination and is posted to a place outside the territorial jurisdiction of the University may be allowed to complete the examination as a private candidate.

8. The Vice-Chancellor may relax the requirement of the foregoing Regulations and grant permission, in an exceptional case, for reasons to be recorded, to a person to appear as a private candidate, in an examination mentioned in Regulations 3 and 4 of this Chapter.

CHAPTER II(i)

PUNISHMENT FOR USE OF UNFAIR MEANS

1.1. Possession of Notes, Books, etc., or any other act on the part of a candidate, or any other person, during or after the examination, as described in these regulations, shall be an act punishable according to the provisions contained in this Chapter.

1.2. In the Regulations contained in this chapter the year means the academic year.

2.1. Every day before examination begins, the Superintendent or the Deputy/Assistant Superintendent shall call upon all the candidates to search their pockets and part with and deliver to him all papers, books or notes, which they may have in their possession. But the absence of such a warning or any candidate not having heard the announcement shall not be accepted as an excuse for possession of objectionable material.

2.2. The Superintendent or the Deputy/Assistant Superintendent (and both when there is a Superintendent as well as the Deputy/Assistant Superintendent) in charge of the examination shall forward to the Registrar, every day, a declaration, signed by him or them and witnessed by all the supervisors then on duty, to the effect that he did, as a matter of fact, call upon the candidates to search their pockets and to surrender all papers, books or notes in their possession.

3.1. If during a University examination a candidate is found having in his possession or accessible to him papers, books or notes, which do not relate to the subject of examination and which could not possibly be of any assistance to him, no action may be taken against him. But the case must be reported to the Registrar with necessary papers,

The Registrar need not report such a case to the Standing Committee.

3.2. If at a University examination but before the question paper is distributed, a candidate voluntarily surrenders to the Superintendent or any other member of the supervisory staff papers, books or notes in his possession and not found or detected by a member of the supervisory staff, no action may be taken against him, provided he has not made any use of them. But the case shall be reported to the Registrar.

4. If during a University examination a candidate is found having in his possession or accessible to him papers, books or notes due to inadvertence but which papers, books or notes could be of assistance to him he may be debarred from passing in that paper as a disciplinary measure.

5. If during a University examination, a candidate is found in mala fide possession of any material such as—

- (a) Papers, books or notes, or
- (b) Written notes on any part of the clothes worn by the candidate or on any part of his body, or table or desk; or
- (c) Foot-rule and/or instruments like setsquares, protractors, slide rules, etc., with notes written on them;

which is relevant to the subject of the examination, he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for two years, including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year, or for four examinations, including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

6. If during a University examination, a candidate is found talking to another candidate or any person inside or outside the examination hall, during the examination hours, without the permission of a member of the supervisory staff, before he has handed over his answer-book, his answer-book for that particular paper shall be cancelled.

7. If an answer-book of an examinee shows or it is otherwise established that he has received or attempted to receive help from any source or in any manner or has given help or attempted to give help to another candidate in any manner, he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for two years, including that in which he is found guilty if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year, or for four examinations including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

8. If during a University examination a candidate is found having copied or indulging in copying from any paper, book or notes or if he has allowed or is found allowing any other candidate to copy any matter from his answer-book or to have in any manner rendered any assistance to another candidate in solving a question or a part of question set in the question paper or if he is found to have been rendered assistance in solving a question or a part of question set in the question paper, he shall be disqualified for a period of two years; including that in which he is found guilty if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year, or for four examinations, including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

9. If a candidate during an examination of the University is found swallowing or attempting to swallow a note or paper or runs away with it or is guilty of causing disappearance or destroying any such material, he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for two years including that in which he is found guilty if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year, or for four examinations, including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

10. If during a University examination a candidate is found consulting books, note books or papers or any other matter while outside the examination hall before he has handed over his answer-book to the Superintendent or any other member of the supervisory staff, he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for two years, including that in which he is found guilty if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year or for four examinations, including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

11.1 A candidate who during the course of the examination writes either on blotting paper, or any other piece of paper, a question set in the paper or anything connected with or relating to a question set in the paper or solution thereof shall be disqualified for one year.

11.2. A candidate found guilty of passing on, or attempting to pass on during the examination, a copy of a question set in the paper or the question paper itself, or a part thereof, or a solution of a question set in the question paper, to anyone, shall be disqualified for two years including that in which he is found guilty.

12. A candidate found in possession of a solution to a question set in the paper through connivance of any member of the supervisory or menial staff or some outside agency shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for three years. Also the person rendering such help shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period of three years and/or shall also be liable to such other punishment as the Vice-Chancellor may decide.

13. A candidate found guilty of having made previous arrangement to obtain help in connection with the question paper shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for three years. The person with whom previous arrangement is made by the candidate shall also be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period of three years and/or also be liable to such other punishment as may be decided by the Vice-Chancellor.

14. A candidate found guilty of—

- (i) Smuggling in an answer-book or a continuation sheet; or
- (ii) taking out or arranging to send out an answer-book or a continuation sheet; or
- (iii) replacing, or getting replaced his answer-book or continuation sheet, during or after the examination with or without the help or connivance of any person connected with the examination centre, shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period of four years.

The candidate shall also be liable to such other punishment as may be decided by the Vice-Chancellor.

15. A person found guilty of having written, outside the examination hall, an answer-book or a continuation sheet for a candidate which the latter has smuggled into the examination hall, or of having managed otherwise to replace the answer-book of the candidate after the examination, shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for four years and/or shall also be liable to such other punishment as may be decided by the Vice-Chancellor.

16. If a candidate during the course of a practical examination in a science or some other subject, presents to the examiner a practical or class work Note-book which does not belong to him he shall be disqualified from passing the examination.

17. If a candidate leaves the examination hall without delivering the answer-book to the supervisor concerned and takes away the same with him or intentionally tears off, or otherwise disposes of his answer-book or any part thereof or the continuation sheet or part thereof inside or outside the examination hall he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for two years including that in which he is found guilty if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year, or for four examinations including that in which he is found guilty, if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

18. A candidate found guilty of (a) serious misconduct in the examination hall, or (b) misbehaviour towards the Superintendent or any member of the supervisory staff outside the examination hall or any other place during the period the examination is being held, shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period of two to five years according to the nature of his mis-conduct.

19. A candidate who refuses to obey the Superintendent of the examination or any other member of the supervisory staff or changes his seat with another candidate or deliberately writes another candidate's Roll Number on his answer-book or creates disturbance of any kind during the examination, or otherwise misbehaves in or around the examination hall, shall be liable to expulsion by the Superintendent, and shall be awarded any of the following punishments according to the seriousness of the offence :—

- (i) Cancellation of the answer-book of the paper concerned;
- (ii) Disqualification from appearing in any University examination which may extend to three years.

20. Any person who impersonates a candidate shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period of five years, if that person is a student on the rolls of a recognised school or college. But if that person is not on the rolls of a recognised school or college he shall be declared as not a fit and proper person to be admitted to any examination of the University for a period of five years and the case, if necessary, may be reported to the Police. The candidate who is impersonated shall also be disqualified for a period of five years. All cases of impersonation shall be reported by the Registrar to the Syndicate.

21. A candidate found to be, or suspected to be guilty of, using unfair means in the examination shall be permitted to answer the remaining part of the question paper, but on a separate answer-book and the answer-book in which the unfair means is suspected shall be seized by the Superintendent, who shall send both the answer-books to the Registrar with his report. This will not affect the candidate's right to appear in the rest of the examination in subsequent papers.

22.1. In the case of a person who commits an offence under any of these regulations, but is not a candidate for any University examination, the Vice-Chancellor may also, if he so decides, hand over the case to the Police.

22.2. In the case of a teacher or a person connected with an institution, who commits an offence under any of these regulations, his conduct shall be reported to the Managing Body of the institution, and to the Government in the case of a Government institution, and he shall be debarred from any remunerative job in the University permanently or for such period as the Vice-Chancellor may decide.

23.1. The Superintendent of the examination shall report to the Registrar, without delay and on the day of occurrence, if possible each case where use of unfair means in the examination is suspected or discovered with full details of evidence and explanation of the candidate concerned on the forms supplied by the Registrar for the purpose.

23.2. In case candidate refuses to give a statement he is not to be forced to do so, only the fact of his refusal shall be recorded by the Superintendent and attested by two other members of the supervisory staff on duty at the time of occurrence.

24.1. A candidate found guilty of using abusive or obscene language in the answer-book, shall be disqualified from passing that examination.

24.2. Where a candidate has made an appeal to the examination through an answer-book such answer-book shall be liable to be cancelled.

25. A candidate found guilty of deliberately disclosing his identity or making any distinctive marks in his answer-book for that purpose, shall be disqualified for the examination concerned, if he is a candidate for an examination held once a year and for two examinations if he is a candidate for an examination held twice a year.

26. A candidate guilty of communicating or attempting to communicate directly or through a relative, guardian or friend with an examiner or with the Registrar with the object of influencing him in the award of marks shall be disqualified from passing that examination and the one following it.

27. A candidate found guilty of approaching or influencing directly or indirectly, regarding his unfair means case, a member of the Committee or any University official, shall be disqualified for one year in addition to the punishment awarded to him under the Regulations for his offence for using unfair means.

28. Where a candidate alleged to have employed unfair means has not been afforded any opportunity to explain the misconduct of which he is reported to be guilty, the Registrar, or an Officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall call upon the candidate to show cause why action should not be taken against him for his misconduct. If the candidate fails to do so within 15 days of the issue of such notice, the University shall proceed with the case.

29. If the Syndicate is satisfied after enquiry that the integrity of a University examination has been violated at an examination centre as a consequence of wholesale unfair assistance rendered to the examinees, the Syndicate may order re-examination, besides taking action under Regulation relating to unfair means and may also abolish the examination centre for future or for a specified period.

30. For a case of unfair means not covered by these Regulations, the Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Committee appointed under Regulation 31 impose such punishment as deemed fit according to the nature of the offence.

31. The Syndicate shall appoint annually a Standing Committee to deal with cases of the alleged misconduct and use of unfair means in connection with examinations.

32.1. When the Committee is unanimous, its decision shall be final except as provided in 32.2. If the Committee is not unanimous the matter shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor who shall either decide the matter himself or refer it to the Syndicate for decision.

322 If in a case, the Vice-Chancellor thinks that facts, duly reduced in writing, have been brought to light within 30 days of the receipt of the decision by the candidate which, had they been before the Committee, might have led to a decision other than the one arrived at, the Vice-Chancellor may order that such facts be placed before the Committee.

323 The Committee shall then reconsider the case. A unanimous decision of the Committee shall be final. But in the event of a difference of opinion, the case shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor who may either finally decide the case himself or refer it to the Syndicate for decision.

Punishment for False Statement in or in Respect of Admission Forms or Certificates of University Examinations

4 A person found guilty of—

- (i) tampering with his own certificate, or
- (ii) obtaining or attempting to obtain a certificate to which he is not entitled, may be disqualified by the Vice-Chancellor for such period as he may deem fit. The order passed by the Vice-Chancellor shall be reported to the Syndicate.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO ADMISSION TO DEGREES UNDER SECTIONS 22 AND 31(2)(n) OF THE PANJAB UNIVERSITY ACT

1 The Syndicate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate the names of all persons who have passed examination required for the various degrees of the university, and have become qualified under the Regulations for admission to such degrees. When the Senate has sanctioned the admission of any such person to any degree, he shall be entitled to be formally admitted to that degree. The date of formal admission to a degree shall be the date on which the Senate has sanctioned the admission of any such person to any degree.

21 For conferment of degree the Senate shall meet in Convocation once or twice every year. The Syndicate shall decide, from time to time, the various categories of graduates, who shall be admitted to their degrees at each Convocation or whose degree shall be sent to them by post, free of charge.

22 Recognised medals and prizes shall be awarded to the persons entitled thereto at the Convocation.

3 A person who is required to attend to a University Convocation for admission to his degree but who is unable to do so, or who is desirous of being admitted to his degree before the Convocation, shall be admitted to his degree in absentia on submission of an application on the prescribed form accompanied by a fee of Rs 10.

4 If any eligible candidate does not intend to appear at the first Convocation after the sanction of his degree, he shall give at least five days' notice to the Registrar of his intended absence, and may then be admitted to his degree at any subsequent Convocation, provided that he gives at least fifteen days' notice to the Registrar of his intention to appear.

COMMITTEE FOR SCRUTINY AND REVISION OF LISTS OF EXAMINERS

11 The Syndicate shall appoint in the month of December every year a Committee for Scrutiny and revision of the lists of examiners suggested by the various Boards of Studies.

12 The Committee shall hold office for a year, with effect from January 1. It shall consist of—

- 1 The Vice-Chancellor, as Chairman;
- 2 Dean of University Instruction;
- 3. Four members nominated by Syndicate,
- 4. Registrar as Member-Secretary.

Four members shall form the quorum.

13. In the absence of the Registrar, a Deputy Registrar nominated by the Registrar, shall act as Secretary of the Committee.

2. The functions of the Committee shall be to scrutinise the lists of examiners suggested by the various Boards of Studies and to make appropriate recommendations to the Syndicate. When the Committee recommended a change in the list recommended by a Board of Studies, the substitute examiner shall ordinarily be from the panel of names, if any, recommended by the Board concerned.

PROCEDURE FOR APPOINTMENT OF EXAMINERS

11 Each Board of Studies shall suggest to the Syndicate, through the Committee appointed for scrutiny and review, examiner in its special subject(s).

12 In making their recommendations, the Board shall follow such rules and directions as may be prescribed by the Syndicate on the subject. The Board shall also follow the qualifications laid down by the Syndicate for appointment of examiners for the various examinations.

2 The Syndicate shall lay down rules (a) for appointment of paper-setters and examiners, and (b) fixation of rates of remuneration to be paid to the paper-setters and examiners.

3. The Syndicate shall issue such general instructions for the guidance of the examiners as it considers necessary for the proper discharge of their duties.

4. If a Paper-setter or examiner is unable to perform the work or to conform to the direction of the University, the Vice-Chancellor shall have power to cancel the appointment of such examiner.

5. Where the appointment of a Paper-setter or examiner is cancelled under 4 above, or where the Paper-setter or examiner, for any cause, is incapable of acting as such or declines the offer, the Vice-Chancellor shall have power to appoint a substitute. Except in a case of emergency, the advice of the Head of the University Teaching Department concerned or the Convener of the Board of Studies concerned shall be made available to the Vice-Chancellor before the appointment of a substitute paper-setter/examiner is made.

CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS

1 Subject to the Regulations and Rules framed and directions issued by Syndicate, the Registrar shall be responsible for all arrangements connected with the conduct of examinations and all matters connected therewith.

2. Every affiliated institution/University Teaching Department shall provide, for supervision of the University examinations, at least one teacher for every 40 candidates appearing in such examination from the institution concerned.

3.1. The Superintendent of each centre shall be appointed by the Syndicate.

3.2. In a case of emergency, when there is a vacancy, owing to the refusal or inability of a Superintendent to act or any other cause, the Vice-Chancellor shall have authority to make the appointment.

4. The Registrar shall have authority to appoint one or more Deputy Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, and other staff required at each for the conduct of examinations.

5. The Syndicate may, when it considers necessary, appoint an Agent for conducting University examinations at any place.

6.1. A candidate whose paper is lost after having been received by the Superintendent of the examination, may be permitted by the Vice-Chancellor to re-appear in the paper lost on a date to be fixed by the Registrar, provided he has passed in all other subjects of the examination or is likely to be placed in the Compartment. If he obtains pass marks in the paper in which he has reappeared he shall be declared to have passed the examination.

6.2. If there is a dispute as to whether a candidate's paper was duly received or not, the finding of the Registrar, subject to confirmation by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be final.

7.1. If a candidate accepted for M.B.,B.S. or B.Ed. examination has been unable to appear in or to complete the annual examination on account of his serious illness or accident to himself, or has been unable to complete his examination on account of death of a near relative on one of the days of the examination he may be given another opportunity of passing the examination in the same year by the Vice-Chancellor if he is satisfied by the evidence produced, that the concession applied for is justified.

*By a near relative is meant father, mother, full and half brother and sister, wife, son, daughter and husband.

7.2. Such a candidate may, at his option, be examined in the supplementary examination of the year, on the payment of the prescribed fee, in the whole subject or in the paper which he missed. The candidate shall be intimated, free of charge, as to whether he has obtained the minimum pass marks or not in the paper or papers in which he had appeared.

7.3. The application of such a candidate shall be entertained only if—

(a) it is submitted not later than the tenth day from the date on which the candidate was incapacitated from taking or completing the examination;

(b) it is submitted through the Principal of his College or, in the case of a private candidate, through the Principal of an affiliated College, and the Principal certifies, after making necessary enquiries (i) that the candidate could not appear in or complete the examination because of his serious illness, or accident to himself, or death of a near relative on one of the days of the examination and (ii) that the candidate had a reasonable chance of success if he had appeared in the examination.

7.4. Candidates to whom this concession is granted shall be allowed to join provisionally the next higher class pending the declaration of their results.

7.5. No candidate who passes under this Regulation shall be eligible for a scholarship or prize.

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Regulation, the Syndicate shall have power, in the case of a permanently physically handicapped person, to—

(i) admit him to Pre-University (Humanities or Fine Arts Group), B.A. or M.A. examination, as a Private candidate, i.e. without being a regular student of an affiliated college/University;

(ii) (a) provide services of a competent amanuensis, free of cost, for writing out the answers at the examination; and (b) allow extra time up to an hour for a paper of three hours' duration;

(iii) permit the answers to be typewritten by himself, if the examinee so desires;

(iv) lay down any other method for assessing the examinee's academic ability and declare his result;

(v) give a credit of five per cent marks, over and above the marks actually obtained by him in the examination, for the purpose of determination of merit for admission to a course, if he is duly certified by the Chief Medical Officer of a District/Director/Principal or a Professor of an affiliated Medical College/Institution as a seriously handicapped person;

(vi) condone a shortage of ten per cent in attendances over and above the normal condonable limit allowed by the regulations :

Provided that in each case, the examinee shall produce such evidence, to the satisfaction of the Registrar, as he may consider necessary, in proof of the statement that his permanent disability is such that he deserves to be considered for the above facilities.

9. If a candidate falls ill seriously and as a result thereof is hospitalised during the days of examination, special arrangements for his examination may be made in the hospital if he—

- (i) produces proper evidence to the satisfaction of the Registrar in support of the serious illness, duly certified by the Head of a recognised Hospital; and
- (ii) arrangements to the satisfaction of the Registrar can be made for holding the examination in the hospital.

Provided that for special arrangements the candidate shall pay an additional charge of Rs. 25 per paper.
